

School Nurse training

A great opportunity

We are looking for registered nurses who will enjoy the challenge of working with children across the school age and have a keen interest in public health

If you are a registered nurse you could train from September 2012 to become a School Nurse.

We can offer:

- Funded university course
- NHS placement in London
- Salary support while training
- You can qualify in 1 year full-time or 2 years part-time

Applications open in February 2012, check our website for details
